We Make "IT" Easy

IT Support Services

Overflow Projects, Ad hoc Support & On-site Dedicated Staff

Is your IT team overwhelmed with the day-to-day or struggling to keep up? Your business could be paying a heavy price...

- Sick days and vacations can cripple your IT team when you need them most
- Missed project deadlines can stall new customer offerings
- Outdated business continuity and disaster recovery plans can imperil your business
- Users at remote locations may have to endure long periods without technical assistance
- Technology upgrades & migrations may have to be delayed, slowing customer response

It's Your Business

We draw upon decades of IT experience to provide the extra help you need. You can contain your headcount, while getting the expertise you need to keep your IT moving in the right direction. Use our experts for any challenge that comes your way, or lean on us only when your IT team is short-handed, needs some specialized expertise, or encounters a tough problem requiring troubleshooting resources they don't have.

What We Do

The added IT support we provide can help you in many ways, including:

- Hit more project deadlines and budget targets
- Set priorities that avoid inter-department squabbles
- Provide an independent, unbiased viewpoint based on diverse customer experiences
- Help you optimize what you already have and offer strategic advice on what comes next
- Exploit new technology and create competitive advantage
- Free up time to focus on core business issues

We Make IT Easy

If your IT capabilities are giving you headaches, DataLink has solutions that are right for your organization – at a cost that makes sense. Whether you're running a small or medium-sized business, every DataLink client is valued. You'll know it, because we'll prove it every day. And it's why for years and years, our client relationships continue.
