Physical Security

Video Surveillance

Are you keeping an eye on your business?

If not, the consequences can sneak up on you...

- Theft can leave you without inventory for customers and drive up insurance premiums
- With no means to gather visual proof, criminals may be encouraged to act again
- Not taking "common sense" precautions can leave your company exposed to litigation
- If employees don't feel safe, they may be discouraged from working late to finish a job
- Negative publicity about break-ins or internal harassment could hurt your reputation

Benefits of Video Surveillance

- Discourages theft, curtails harassment, and increases staff productivity
- Enforces safety policies and promotes safer work environment
- Provides a visual record for law enforcement

Keep an Eye on Your Business
